

Title: A CORDIC processor implemented on a DE2-115 board

From: Martin Sjödin

Country: Sweden and Ericsson

Abstract: A CORDIC unit, which can perform rotations and measure angles in the complex plane by using only add, subtract and shift operations, has been implemented on an Altera Cyclone IV FPGA. The presentation will describe the CORDIC algorithm and its implementation.

Length: 15 min